Roll Call:

1. Consent Agenda

March GBNLC Minutes and Financial report approved

*A motion was made to amend the agenda to address the Secretary Position, as Billie Jo Horsens is leaving employment from the City of Green Bay. Motion to amend the agenda was approved. Welcomed Will Peters as the new Neighborhood Support Assistant position with the City of Green Bay. Will Peters will start on April 17, 2017 in his new role. Welcome to Mayor Jim Schmitt, along with Alderman Randy Scannell, Alderwoman Barbara Dorff and State of Wisc. Senator Dave Hansen.

2. Mayor's Report

Mayor Schmitt welcomed Noel Halvorsen as a new member to the City of Green Bay Zoning board of appeals. He also gave everyone a reminder about the upcoming state of the city address next week. The theme of the address will be about retaining and recruiting talent to the city. He will also have a Shipyard update, will discuss the East Town Mall redevelopment and give an update on the Cub Foods redevelopment. Encouraged all to attend the meeting and invited all to the Metreau after the address. He then took questions from all in attendance. Question from Taku about voting procedures. Also received a question on the proposed development at the Packerland Packaging Site.

*Motion was then made to elect Will Peters as the new Secretary position due to Billie Jo Horsens leaving. Motion carried.

3. Aging and Disability Resource Center

Presentation from Laurie Ropson about the Aging and Disability Resource Center and all the Services they offer. She passed out an informational packet to all present.

4. GBNLC Information

Cheryl Renier Wigg & Noel Halvorsen both went through a Powerpoint slideshow regarding the GBNLC and its purpose. Both discussed and clarified topics regarding City involvement, how the GBNLC was set up, discussed that this is an independent organization and how the actions of one neighborhood association can affect everyone in the GBNLC .

5. City Staff Updates

Parks encouraged everyone to check their website for all of the upcoming events taking place. City staff stated that they are behind on the Mini Grant applications, but would hopefully have them out in a few weeks.

6. Open Forum

Schmitt Park-interested in volunteering at Lambeau Field, wanting to know if other associations are interested in sharing some of the duties and times.

-Western Corridor-they will be cleaning up the Edninger Trail on May 21st, also GB Bike will be coming to

-McAuliffe Park-Easter Egg Hunt upcoming

-Downtown-doing a clean up on the 21st.

Update on Pedro the Pelican-it is going thru the Arts commission process, working on where, how to get this art piece set up.

7. Adjournment-at 6:47pm

The Mission of the Green Bay Neighborhood Leadership Council is to improve the quality of life in neighborhoods throughout the City of Green Bay by empowering citizens working through their Neighborhood Associations.
