GBNLC FUNDRAISING UPDATE

Pledges continue coming in and follow-ups and requests continue to be made.

APRIL GBNLC MEETING SUGGESTIONS

Steering Committee members selected these proposed topics to form the basis of the upcoming April 4, 2019 meeting of the GBNLC:

- Update from Kevin Vonck and Questions
- Crime Report from Commander Kevin Warych
- Introduction of Chair of Sustainability Committee and discussion
- Introduction of New Mayor
- Neighborhood Art Grants discussion and questions
- Other business to include quick updates on the GBNLC Web re-design and the need for bios from each neighborhood; the announcement of an possible mentoring program for new or revitalized neighborhoods.

OTHER BUSINESS

1. Dan Theno summarized the positive quality of the co-sponsorship activity of the GBNLC with the League of Women Voters for the final mayoral candidate debate.
2. Will Peters reported that Lime Bikes was pulling out of Green Bay due to a change to scooters. Other bike shares are being investigated.
3. A general discussion of the status of inactive neighborhoods ensued. In addition, discussion of the flooding concerns affecting specific neighborhoods and the lack of communication about contacts for help was covered.
4. Dan then called us all to start to identify standard operating procedures for the GBNLC steering Committee.

MOTION TO ADJOURN was made by Cheryl Renier-Wigg and seconded by Jim Ridderbush. Unanimously approved by voice vote with adjournment at 5:30 pm.

NEXT SCHEDULED MEETING: April 17, 2019 4:30-5:30 pm in Room 606 of City Hall.
